Topic: Established Church Development Grant Funds

Date: April 2020

Dear Churches,

Heartland Classical Home Missions Committee encourages your application for Established Church Development Grant Funds.

The funds are to be used by the classis churches and are available to help and encourage established churches and ministries of Heartland Classis to invest in mission minded activities including events, programs and leadership development targeting the local community.

The funds will be reviewed and awarded by the CHMC at its regularly scheduled meeting:

- The Proposal Form must be filled out completely and should be submitted by the 1st of each month of January, April, July, and October.
- Funds will be awarded on a first come basis with a maximum request of $1000 per project with a maximum annual budget of $5000 and/or as provided by classis ministry shares.
- Proposals must be submitted or approved by the church consistory.

Please read the Application form for more information—please do read it and take advantage of the funds available.
